Chapter: (Ice-cream Man & Noun Gender)

Q1.	Read the passage carefully and answer the following questions:
	There was a girl named Anu. She was a quiet and kind- hearted child. She was in class V. Every student in her class was given a task to do, like cleaning the blackboard, keeping the class quiet etc. This time Anu got a new task to do. She was given a box with some sand and an ant. Some of her friends were surprised while others laughed at her, but she was happy to accept it. She decided to make it a special task. She took tender loving care for that tiny insect and fed it properly. Soon she learnt its behaviour and habits. Later every student had to display their task. Anu was congratulated for doing an insignificant task with responsibility. Thus we should remember, however insignificant the task, it should be done with complete dedication and responsibility.
