

Q 1. Read the following paragraph and answer the questions given below.

The king went up to the hermit and said, “I have come to you, wise hermit, to ask you to answer three questions: How can I learn to do the right thing at the right time? Who are the people I need most? And what affairs are the most important?”

1. Why did the king go to the hermit?
2. What did he want to know?
3. How many questions did the king ask the hermit?

Q 2 Frame the story from the given points.

A cow – went into the forest- a tiger wanted to eat her- she begged him to let her go home once to feed her calf- tiger did not believe her- she promised to come back- tiger allowed- after sometime she came back- the tiger let her go - moral

Q 3. Answer the following questions in one word.

1. Whom did the king send throughout the kingdom to find the wise man who could be able to answer his three questions?
2. What did the king promise to give the person ?
3. Why wasn't the king satisfied with the answers given by his courtiers?
4. Whom did the king decide to seek the advice of?
5. Where was he living?

Q 4. Identify the underlined noun.

1. India is my Country.
2. The Bible says, love your neighbor as yourself.
3. When the lockdown is over people rushed outside.
4. The Effel Tower is located in Paris .
5. Coffee, milk and sugar is needed for making coffee.

Q 5 Underline abstract and concrete noun from the following sentences.

1. Sadness or happiness is a state of mind..
2. Give me a glass of water.
3. Everybody talks about my friendship with my pet dog.
4. Salt is an essential ingredient for making any dish.

ANSWER KEY

Q 1. Read the following paragraph and answer the questions given below.

The king went up to the hermit and said, "I have come to you , wise hermit, to ask you to answer three questions: How can I learn to do the right thing at the right time? Who are the people I need most? And what affairs are the most important?"

1. Why did the king go to the hermit?- The king went to the hermit to ask him the answers of his questions.
2. What did he want to know?- The king wanted to know three things.
3. How many questions did the king ask the hermit?- The king asked three questions to the king.

Q 2. Frame the story from the given points.

A cow – went into the forest- a tiger wanted to eat her- she begged him to let her go home once to feed her calf- tiger did not believe her- she promised to come back- tiger allowed- after sometime she came back- the tiger let her go – Moral

THE COW AND THE TIGER

Once upon a time a cow was living in a village. One day she went to a forest in search of lush green grass. As she went by, suddenly a tiger appeared before her and said, " Ah ha! After a long time I have found such a delicious prey like you!"

The cow got frightened. She thought about her little calf who was waiting for her in the village. She begged the tiger to let her go. But the tiger wanted to eat her at any cost.

So, she told the tiger, " O, mighty tiger! Please let me go and visit my little calf for the last time so that I can feed him and bid him farewell forever."

The tiger did not agree, but the cow promised him to come back. Finally, the tiger allowed her to visit her calf for the last time and then come back. The tiger waited for her .

After some time, the cow came back. The tiger saw her . He was impressed by her honesty. He did not kill her. And let her go home.

Moral: The moral of the story is ‘ Honesty is the best policy’.

Q 1. Answer the following questions in one word.

1. Whom did the king send throughout the kingdom to find the person who could be able to answer his three questions?- The messengers.
2. What did the king promise to give the person ?- A large sum of money.
3. Why wasn't the king satisfied with the answers given by his courtiers?- The answers were different.
4. Whom did the king decide to seek the advice of? – Certain hermit.
5. Where was he living?- In the woods.

Q 4. Identify the underlined noun.

1. India is my Country. - India= proper noun, country= common noun
2. The Bible says, love your neighbor as yourself.- Love= abstract noun
3. When the lockdown is over people rushed outside.- People= Collective noun
4. The Eiffel Tower is located in Paris .- Eiffel Tower= proper noun
5. Coffee, milk and sugar is needed for making coffee. – Milk = material noun

Q 5 Underline abstract and concrete noun from the following sentences.

1. Sadness or happiness is a state of mind..
Ans: Sadness, Happiness= Abstract noun
2. Give me a glass of water
Ans : Glass, Water= Concrete noun.
3. Everybody talks about my friendship with my pet dog.
Ans : Friendship = Abstract noun
4. Salt is an essential ingredient for making any dish.
Ans : Salt = Concrete noun

Dear Students, please write all these exercises in your notebooks.

